It is really good to see you so many of you returning each week and we are getting used to the new routine. For those of you who are still a little nervous, we are confident that we are taking every precaution to keep you safe, so do come and see. The church is cleaned and sanitized after every mass and numbers attending range between 15 and 35. We have a maximum number of 49 but at no time have we had to turn parishioners away. Entry to the church has been managed very sensitively by our stewards, without whom, I wouldn't be able to celebrate mass for you. Meanwhile masses will continue to be streamed online from the Cathedral and other churches in the Diocese for those of you unable to join us. Thank you for your support in these challenging times. May God bless you. Fr. Philip

An Act of Spiritual Communion "My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen."

Check out Pope Francis' daily tweets on Twitter 'The coronavirus is not the only disease to be fought, but rather, the pandemic has shed light on broader social ills. One of these is a distorted view of the person, a perspective that ignores the dignity and relational character of the person' Pope Francis @Pontifex

We have been advised that there continues to be no access to church halls, kitchens or toilets until further notice

Last weekend many of us gathered for a 'Virtual Saturday' get together with our parish family & friends and paused at the same time in spirit throughout the weekend.

We enjoyed delicious enjoy coffee at 10.30 am – the best afternoon tea at 3.00 pm, raised our glasses at 7.00 pm - and some even joined a zoom COCKTAIL party!

Crazy – yes we know..... however your generosity raised much needed funds for the parish and there is still more cash promised. The 'cash prize draw' has been drawn by Fr. Philip and the lucky winner of £50.00 was Geraldine & Cyril.

Exmouth Larder – there are baskets in the Cloister of Holy Ghost for you to leave your food donations when you come to mass. Thank you to Hugh & Eve for delivering your offerings to the Food Bank.

We know that many parishioners do not have access to email or to the website so please share the information in this bulletin with them if you can. Thank you
